

GREY CLOUD ISLAND CEMETERY

* BURIALS

Grey Cloud Island Cemetery is located in Grey Cloud Island Township on the Mississippi River in south west Washington Co., Minnesota.

The earliest known burial was a McCoy Baby who died 09 February, 1873. At that time many of the residents were of "mixed-blood" Indian families who owned small farms on the Island. This cemetery was also known as the "Old County Line Cemetery."

FACTS AND FICTION ABOUT GREY CLOUD CEMETERY

To qualify for burial in Grey Cloud Cemetery you must be either a resident of Grey Cloud Island Township, born in Grey Cloud Township, The spouse or close relative of a person already buried there. For further information about burial please contact the Cemetery Committee Chair, Patty Bestler @ (612) 214-8577 or pbest1416@gmail.com

On Sunday, September 30, 2001 a plaque from the Washington County Historical Society was installed in the cemetery and dedicated, which reads; GREY CLOUD CEMETERY - The first burials, from 1873, were from early French Canadian families who first settled the island--Bourcier, Brunell, LaBathe, Leith, Mavis, McCoy and Turpin. The John Stringer family donated the first land for the cemetery in 1894.

There are many ghost stories and tales about Grey Cloud Cemetery being haunted by an Indian Chief named Grey Cloud who carries a green lantern. These stories are NOT true. Those of us who have lived on Grey Cloud for many years have never seen any para-normal activity or ghosts in the cemetery. One very important fact is that Grey Cloud was not an Indian Chief at all. Grey Cloud was actually a Sioux woman, the daughter of Chief Wabasha who married a Scotsman named James Aird. Her name in the Sioux language is "Mar-pi-ya-ro-to-win." Her daughter Margaret was also given this name.

The cemetery is secluded and the gates are always kept locked because of past vandalism. The cemetery is about a block in from the road gate and you can walk in during daylight hours. Visits can also be arranged by contacting the Cemetery Committee Chair, Patty Bestler (contact information below).

No one is allowed in the cemetery after sunset. Violators will be prosecuted.
